

The Ship's Store

DVDs

---

DVD-140	S.S. JOHN W. BROWN: "You Bet! We're Going Back to Sea"	$9.95
A documentary produced by Matt Jenkins from Cameron University. Recorded on the 60th Anniversary Living History Cruise. Full color. Running time: 34 minutes.

---

DVD-141	JWB ENGINE ROOM MACHINERY	$9.95
A wonderful look at the BROWN'S engine at work. Filmed aboard the BROWN by Mary Jude Szymanski. Full color. Running time: 14 minutes.

Videos

---

V-131	JOHN W. BROWN VIDEO	$39.95
Filmed by Emmy Award Winning Carl Kriegeskotte in 1991 during the BROWN's sea trials in August and her first Chesapeake Cruise in September. Color. Running time 30 minutes.

---

V-133	BIRTH OF VICTORY	$20.00
The story of the Kaiser Shipyards in Richmond, California, which delivered over 700 ships to the war effort. This is the complete story, featuring every aspect of shipyard operation and ship construction. Color. Running time 60 minutes.

---

V-134	FORGOTTEN HEROES	$20.00
Filmed aboard the BROWN in 1993. The British company "October Films" produced this documentary for the BBC. This tape details the experiences of a number of British and American World War II merchant seamen. Color. Running time 60 minutes.

---

V-135	THE MEN WHO SAILED LIBERTY SHIPS	$29.95
Civilians in a combat zone, merchant seamen faced every known hazard at sea. As a result of their dangerous work they suffered one the highest casualty rates of World War II. This is the remarkable story of the men who volunteered to sail cargo ships to the battlefronts all over the world. Color. Running time 57 minutes.

---

V-136	THE LAST MEETING	$20.00
A video record of the meeting at sea of the Liberty Ships JOHN W. BROWN and JEREMIAH O'BRIEN, which took place off Cape Cod on August 15, 1994. With footage from the BROWN by Torben Hansen (marginal quality but historic nonetheless), additional footage provided by the Canadian Coast Guard Vessel PROVO WALLIS. Color. Running time 25 minutes.

---

V-137	MOVING PARTS	$20.00
See the JOHN W. BROWN's engine at work and much, much more. Running time 60 minutes.

---

V-138	THE DREAM IS ALIVE	$20.00
This long-awaited, documentary-length video is Torben Hansen's masterwork, covering the entire history of the BROWN's restoration, from her departure from the Reserve Fleet in 1988 to the present day cruises and her crew in action. Color and black &amp; white. Running time 1¼ hr.

Some items are limited to quantities on hand
and cannot be reordered, so order early!

PROJECT LIBERTY SHIP IS AN ALL-VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATION

Thank you for helping to “Keep Her Sailing!”